BY-LAWS, 2001

(Made by the Authority on the 14th day of September, 2001)

L.N. 134/2001

1. These By-Laws may be cited as the Port Authority (Regulation of Cruise Ship Premises) By-Laws, 2001.

Citation.

2. In these By-Laws—

Interpretation.

“Port Authority premises” means all cruise ship premises vested in, owned or controlled by the Port Authority;

“Tourist Board” means the Tourist Board established under the Tourist Board Act.

3.—(1) No person shall operate or maintain any business on Port Authority premises unless such person is the holder of a licence issued by the Authority for the purpose.

Licence to operate on Port Authority premises.

(2) The Authority may in its discretion refuse to grant or renew a licence to operate any business under these By-Laws.

4.—(1) The Authority may—

Suspension and revocation of licences.

(a) give notice in writing to a licensee suspending his licence for such period as the Authority may consider necessary or desirable; or

(b) revoke the licence with effect from such date as the Authority specifies in the notice.

(2) All rights and privileges enjoyed under any licence which is revoked or suspended hereunder shall cease to have effect from the date specified in the notice of revocation or suspension as the case may be, but such revocation or suspension shall not in any way affect the liability of the licensee or other person in respect of contravention of these By-Laws or breach of the terms of the licence that may have occurred prior to that revocation or suspension.
